DEDICATION

The Klondike Senior Class dedicates the 1977 Cougar to our parents who have diligently supported us throughout our lives. We thank you for your love and your participation in every project in which we have engaged. Your endless effort and devotion will serve as a guideline for our lives in the future.

INVOLVEMENT

Explore for yourself. Find true answers. Be an individual, with your own thoughts. Gaining knowledge by taking all factors into consideration. Not letting opinions influence you, but rather leave your thoughts for new ideas.

"Well, here I am, waiting to get my diploma on graduation day. The same familiar question keeps going through my mind, "Where do I go from here?" I've always felt secure. You know what I mean, being at home, seeing my friends everyday. Now we'll all be going our own separate ways. You'd think by now I'd be ready for a change, but I feel like I'm leaving a part of me behind. I have so many memories that mean so much . . . I wonder how long it will be before they begin to fade away. I guess I really have changed in the past three years. Well, my name is next, then I'll be up there and before I know it everything will be over. Really, in a way, everything is just beginning."
